

In celebration of International Women's Day & Fairtrade Fortnight, 'Bristol Link with Nicaragua' presents:

An evening of food, film and discussion about issues faced by women in Nicaragua...

at La Ruca, 89 Gloucester Road, Bristol
Thursday 8 March 2007 from 6.30pm

“Come and hear Nicaraguan coffee producer Melba Estrada tell her story of how Fairtrade has transformed the lives of many female small scale coffee producers in Northern Nicaragua”

Other speakers include:

Gioconda Perez, BLINC support worker in Puerto Morazan Sheila Roberts from Bristol Action for Southern Africa & the “Dignity Period” campaign in Zimbabwe

Also: enjoy a range of Latin American dishes (on sale) and screening of excerpts from the film ‘Our America’ (2005), about women’s experiences in Nicaragua during and after the civil war.

All welcome - Admission FREE!

This event is part of Bristol Fairtrade Fortnight 2007 and International Women's Day

